

When freedom of press is undermined by allowing the potential for a monopoly... meaning control of airtime and views... we, the people, are effectively reduced to a voiceless population. Jefferson, Adams, Franklin, Washington, Madison -- and the rest -- would be ashamed of you for even considering it.